THE STUDENTS OF

CRESCENT HEIGHTS HIGH SCHOOL

CALGARY, ALBERTA, CANADA

VOLUME XXXIII.

PREMIER E. C. MANNING

I appreciate the opportunity presented to me through the Crescent Heights High School Yearbook to express sincere best wishes to all the students and, in particular, those who will graduate at the end of this term.

Some of the graduates will be going on to continue their education in more advanced fields of learning. To those I would emphasize the deep satisfaction that you will receive from the results of this decision in later life. Others will be proceeding from the classrooms into the business and commercial world and to those I would draw to their attention that nowhere on this continent are there greater opportunities offered to the young man and woman than those here in their own Province of Alberta.

While I have no direct connection with an Alberta school, having received my schooling in the neighboring Province of Saskatchewan, I feel a real measure of affinity with the Crescent Heights High School through my close associations with your former principal, the late Premier William Aberhart.

From Mr. Aberhart, I learned something of the esteem he held for the students and the staff of the school. Through hundreds of others, I have learned of the loyalty and genuine affection they, as former students and members of the staff, held for this great man.

Since 1915, the Crescent Heights High School has played an outstanding role, not only among the schools of Calgary, but in the inter-school affairs of the entire Province. I am sure that it will continue to merit this prominent place achieved by the efforts of students and staff in the years past.

PREMIER E. C. MANNING

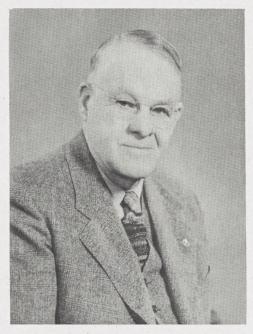

This thirty-third volume of the Bugle is respectfully dedicated to Mr. Paul R. Brecken, whom we esteem as teacher, and who has contributed so much to our school and community.

"CITIZEN OF THE YEAR" 1951

Voted by Calgary Junior Chamber of Commerce

In former years I have written a short farewell to the graduating class. This year I join with the graduating class in saying a farewell to those who will remain behind and carry on the traditions of Crescent Heights High School. Some of the class have not completed their course in record time, but I am in no position to chide them because none have taken as long as I to go through the school. As the years pass the good times that we have had together will stand out in our memories with increasing vividness and the unpleasant incidents will fade into the background. We will watch with interest the progress made by those with whom we have worked and will always experience a thrill as we hear of their success in their chosen fields of work. In the meantime we can all join with Egbert Sandford in saying:

Thank God for trees:
Bird: blossom: breeze.
But thank Him most
Of all for these:
Fun: frolic: cheers—
Light: laughter: tears—
And memory that
Both sees and hears.

P. R. Brecken.

MR. PAUL R. BRECKEN

Time inevitably brings changes, many of which we regret, and one which thousands of us will regret very much is the retirement of Paul Brecken from the Staff of Crescent Heights High School. He has been there for thirty-one years, and during that time his high character, his unfailing cheerfulness, his interest in sports and all other school activities, and above all the high quality of his teaching have contributed very largely to making the school what it has been. All of us who have been at Crescent Heights, either as pupils or teachers, during Paul's time there, have benefitted from our contacts with him, and will see him leave for a well-earned retirement with sorrow that his active participation in the school's activities has been severed, but with the very best wishes for the future.

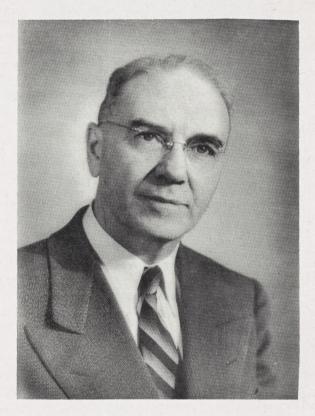

Paul Brecken is a product of the Maritimes, that area which has contributed so many men and women to the professional life of Canada. He was born in Halifax, N.S., and went to school in Fredericton and Sackville, N.B. He continued his education at St. Andrew's College and Toronto University, from which he received the degree of B.A. Sc. in engineering. Whilst at University he was active in student organizations and sports, especially track, tennis and fencing.

Following graduation he worked for two years with a railway supply firm and then his interest in young people led him into Y.M.C.A. work. He served as General Secretary of a Y.M.C.A. in Toronto and then in Calgary. When the First World War came on Paul joined the forces and served overseas in France. Following the war he entered the teaching profession and came to Crescent Heights High School in 1921 as a science instructor. For many years he was in charge of boys' athletics and organized, and in some cases, coached teams of all kinds. In 1943 he became vice-principal of the school.

Paul Brecken has always been a man of broad interests, and did not confine his activities to his school work. Throughout his long period in Calgary he has taken an active part in the affairs of Central United Church, serving as Superintendent of the Sunday School and as Recording Steward of the church. In service club circles he is extremely well known, being a long-time member of the Calgary Kiwanis Club, of which he served as president. He was also Governor of the Western Canada District of the Club and Vice-President of Kiwanis International.

Mr. Brecken always took a keen interest in Civic, Provincial, Dominion and World affairs. He has been an active member of the Calgary Canadian Club, of which he was president at one time, and was also on the National Executive Association of the Canadian Clubs. He has been on the executive for some years of the Calgary East Conservative Association. He actively entered civic politics and was elected as alderman, at present serving his second term in that capacity."

In concluding, we wish to extend our appreciation to Mrs. Brecken for the part she has played in making possible Paul's outstanding achievements.

Years ago in a little Ontario village there sat a man. He sat every year throughout the year. In winter he sat in a warm place behind the stove in the village store, spat on his hands and addressed them as follows: "Old hands, next summer you've got to work!" All summer he sat on the bench in the shade, in front of the store, spat on his hands and said: "Old hands next winter you've got to work." Thus he sat life through, at intervals making brave resolves that he would work, but actually never exerting himself and never doing anything he didn't have to do. I suspect that he's still too lazy to flap his wings or operate his poker and shovel. He would postpone activity continuously from century to century throughout eternity.

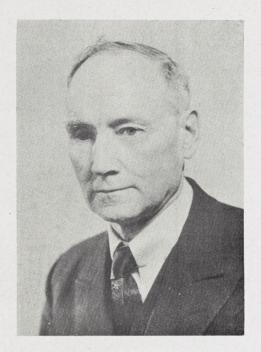

Old George was comfortable and happy but he never held up his end. He never contributed anything to life. He never made up his mind to work, except next year. Fortunately the world is not made up entirely of this kind of Old George. Civilization and human progress are produced by people who do exert themselves. We have great numbers of doctors, jurists, engineers, scientists, artists, musicians, writers, technicians; surses, and plain ordinary workers who concentrate on their jobs and conscientiously serve society. They don't all create new things, discover new truth or make spectacular discoveries. All God expects of us is that we use our talents,—one, two or five and not just sit life out.

Graduating class of Nineteen fifty-two Let's see what you can do.

Best "wishes,

C.H.H.S., April, 1952.

A TRIBUTE

This year's Bugle Staff, on behalf of all its predecessors wishes to pay tribute to Mr. C. V. Asselstine, for his untiring efforts in guiding the destiny of your Year Book for twenty-one years (1927-48)—years when publishing the Bugle was a hazardous business venture.

Under Mr. Asselstine's direction the publication grew from one of 120 pages and a circulation of 400 to a book of 172 pages with a high of 1350 subscribers. Not only was the book published on a sound financial basis, but a small surplus was built up; a complete record was set up for each year and retained; all known editions of the Bugle were collected and bound. These are now Bugle property. He set an increasing standard of attainment which in later years was praised by many Canadian high school annuals and successive staffs strive to maintain.

In looking back through the old books it is remarkable how many ex-staff members have made a success in their chosen fields in business. Here again his training must have had some bearing.

It is therefore a pleasure and a privilege to express our thanks and deep appreciation to Mr. Asselstine, whose contributions to the life and records of this school will long remain.

EDITORIAL

The end of June marks the termination to another happy year at Crescent. I am positive we will always value the friendships made, with teachers and students, and will look back with pride at the experiences we shared with them.

This year draws to a close for many of us our high school education. As we step out into the future, we will find awaiting for us countless fields of opportunity. Whatever path we follow, let us hope that we will conscientiously serve our community and 'do a honest day's work for an honest day's pay'.

If, when your high school years are only a memory, the pages of this book may bring to mind, a true picture of Crescent, then the Bugle will have fulfilled its purpose.

In the last few years we have witnessed the gradual expansion of Crescent from an academic high school to a composite high school. It is our sincere wish that Crescent will continue in its usual successful manner, and that more and more students will take advantage of the added educational facilities now offered.

The success of the future depends on the youth of today. Let us each sincerely try to play a worthwhile part.

BILL BRADLEY, Editor-in-Chief.

STUDENTS' COUNCIL EXECUTIVE

TAKE IT FROM HERE

So draws to a close another year of life at Crescent, and another year of Students' Union activities is written into the record books. It's through such organizations as our Students' Council that we, as teenagers, are able to practice the rights and freedoms of Democracy. Every member of the student body had a voice in the election of the Council executive and in the election of individual room representatives who presented the view of the students to the council.

Democracy does not end here! As we pass out of Crescent into the world, it will be our duty to elect representatives to the city council, provincial legislature and Dominion parliament. There is one main difference between the democracy which we have experienced here at high school and that of the everyday world. Democracy here has been given to you but in the work-a-day world it is offered to you. Democracy is yours for the taking—take it from here—and hold high its principles and ideals!

To the graduation students and to the students who will be back at Crescent next year we wish the best of luck and success in all future endeavours.

Wayne Currie, President Students' Council.

STUDENTS' COUNCIL 1951-1952

This draws to a close another successful year for the Union of Crescent Heights High. The Union was under the able sponsorship of Miss Wylie and Mr. Cartwright. Thanks go to these people for their helpful advice.

The executive for this year was:

President	Wayne Currie
Vice-President	Lucille King
Treasurer	Marilyn Jowett
Secretary	Mavis Murray
Fifth Member	Jenny Chow
Sixth Member	Peter Watt

Business was carried on in a quiet orderly manner usually. Lengthy discussions and a great deal of time was spent on the drawing up of a new constitution due to the destruction of the constitution of the previous year. Last year the annual May Queen dance was sponsored by the Union. The Queen was Sadie Baker; her ladies-in-waiting were Helen Pottruff and Connie Halpin.

New records were bought for the radio club by the Union with the help of donations from clubs.

A boys' recreation room and a girls' recreation room were opened this year. The Union bought a record player for the girls and a radio for the boys. Magazines were purchased for each.

House League Hockey was formed this year under the supervision of Mr. Watson. Some keen competition has highlighted the noon hours. Letters on school rings and pins have been changed from C.H. C.I. to C.H.H.S.

The first dance of the year "Hi-Ya Hop" sponsored by the Union was a great success with a turnout of over 900.

The Senior Boys' Basketball team, who won the championship this year, were presented with jackets from the Union. At the beginning of the year the Union purchased new basketball nets.

So ends another year of Union highlights and we wish the best of luck to those who succeed us. A special thanks go to the teachers and students who so willingly assisted us throughout the year.

OPERETTA

Shades of the California gold rush, beautiful dancing girls, desperate desperados, six gun toting varmints and highlights of old Mexico went before capacity crowds on March 13-14, as Norman Pickard wrote another page in the musical history of Crescent Heights with the Choral Societies 1952 production "The Golden Trail".

Combining the creative talents of Audrey Pickard, Orville Kirk, and Walter Megega the spectacle was well received. The orchestra was one of the best ever assembled while the dancers, directed by Miss Pickard, added grace and charm to an otherwise rugged setting. Walter Megega, an old veteran whose name is becoming synonomous with villians and cut-throats, completed his third year as actor and stage manager.

The actual story was based on a true happening in the life of the infamous Mexican bandit Murietta, a dusty desert terrorist of those by-gone days.

As the curtain parted the audience found themselves at the Golden Trail Hotel owned and operated by one Mike O'Rourke, alias Byron Stickle. Now it seems hotels weren't up to much in those days but then neither was Mike. The only touch of elegance the place claimed was in the form of Montmorency Puddington, a misplaced Bostonite, ably played by Buddy Pearse. Monty was the occupant of any job that required filling from chamber maid, gardener, to horse doctor.

Now it so happened that the great Don Carlos Alvarado, with his only daughter, Barbarita and some friends while on route to a double birthday celebration at Senora had the misfortune to lose some horses. The party was forced to stay at Mike's.

Alvarado upon arriving at the hotel finds Don Pedro Carranza, Eldon Godfrey, already there and further learns that an immigrant wagon train is due over the mountains any day. Up to this point there was little mention of gold.

Suddenly, with the report of a 50mm canon (revolver shots), the hero, Smiling Charley (Gary Miller), nose dives into centre stage with a three point landing. He is a pony express rider and clutches tightly to a gold consignment. Bandits, after his gold, shot his horse out from under him ten miles down the trail but true to tradition he out ran his mounted pursuers to reach safety. He was immediately surrounded by adoring females to whom he responded with equal enthusiasm.

Later the still desperate bandits raid the hotel, supposedly stealing the gold and kidnap the lovely Carmela, a member of the Alvarado party, as a hostage.

The arrival of the immigrants overshadows the robbery as a gay celebration of welcome takes place. The gold robbery seemed all but forgotten. All go to the immigrant camp for more celebration and sports, leaving Smiling Charley to watch for the bandits. Alone Charley suddenly found himself confronted by Dead-Shot Dick, his sworn enemy. Backed up by a following of rugged-looking gold miners, Dick lays a false charge of theft and murder against the outnumbered Smiling Charley who incidently had lost his smile. Dead-Shot calls for a lynching and has everything about set when the appearance of Trapper Joe, a friend of Charlies, and his protege, Annie get your gun Jones, the rootenest, tootenest shootenest rifle packin gal ever to set foot out West, foils his plans.

Barbarita's birthday arrives, but for her it has a sad note. The dashing Americano, Smiling Charley, with whom she has fallen deeply in love as he with her, has disappeared in quest of the gold stealing bandits.

Don Pedro, finding the Alvarado family unprotected except for servants and a few incidentals, masters the situation revealing himself as the dreaded bandit leader Murietta. Dead-Shot Dick who was believed to be the real bandit is exposed as a lieutenant of Murietta.

The sneering leader then demands the Alvarado family jewels and the gold which he apparently has not stolen.

The enchanting Carmela having nonchalantly escaped from her abducters catches the strutting Murietta with his ego showing, persuading him to sing of his roguish deeds. This clever ruse detains the bandit's escape enabling Charley and the boys to return and catch the Banditti.

Even the gold is found in the rose bush which is the only living thing to support Puddington's claim as a gardner. Lovers are reunited, bandits taken away and all is happy as the curtain falls.

The Boys' Hi-Y Club under the capable leadership of Frank Patton and the watchful eye of Mr. Cooper, the teacher sponsor, experienced a very successful year. The Club was very active and a great deal has been accomplished.

At the beginning of the term we distributed a school directory to every newcomer to the school. In February our club held its annual dance, "Hi-Y Hi-Lites", featuring Bruce Bristowe. In May, this club sent five delegates to the Western International Hi-Y Conference in Regina, and it also contributed to the Y.M.C.A. Building Fund. Throughout the year we have handled the school sweaters, operated checking system at school functions and we have sold school Christmas Cards.

Activities within the club were our customary Induction Service, held this year in conjunction with the Alberta Hi-Y Conference at Wesley Church and a successful club party was held at the Y.M.C.A. In June we went on our annual camping trip. During our Thursday noon meetings, we have had very good educational discussions.

The aim of this club is clean sport, clean living, and clean scholar-ship.

The Junior Red Cross has had another very successful year. This year our first project was our annual Christmas Drive. Students donated about sixty dollars which was used to buy food to pack hampers for five needy families.

We received a portfolio from a school in Greece and sent one in return. This portfolio contained pictures of our school, our activities, our sports, Calgary, and the surrounding country.

Ogden Hostel was visited at Christmas and the students entertained with a variety of numbers. The Annual carol singing was held at the Colonel Belcher on Christmas morning. Groups visited the Blind Institute. Every week some students went to the Crippled Children's Hospital. We helped at the Blood Donor Clinic each week.

The Red Cross annual dance "April Showers" was held.

Last year one delegate, Lois Toone, went from Crescent Red Cross group to the Red Cross camp at Jasper.

CRESCENT HEIGHTS CURLING CLUB

President	Neale	Larsen
Vice-President	Ron	Brown
Secretary-Treasurer	Lar	ry Fisk

The rocks thundered louder and the brooms were swept faster than ever before when the Crescent Heights Curling Club got its eight team round-robin series under way this season.

The rinks of Neale Larsen and Larry Fisk swept top honors with those of Ron Brown, Don Mark, Ken Steinley, Jim Adamson and Larry Orton providing powerful opposition.

The female of the species was well represented too, with Pat Mills showing that girls have what it takes to skip a team worthy of putting up a fighting game.

Crescent Heights was well represented in the Taylor, Pearson and Carson Bonspiel also, with Neale Larsen, Don Mark, Jim Adamson, and Gordie McClennan making things tough for all comers.

MAKE-UP COMMITTEE

The make-up group met every Thursday under the capable direction of Beth Robertson and Connie Telfer. These girls taught the new members the basic steps in doing make-up for the stage. This also included character and different nationality make-up.

The main event for the group was doing make-up for the Operetta which was the big item of practice. This make-up group was also responsible for the make-up for the Variety Concert plays.

Members of this group were:—Mair Evans, Jean Finlay, Doreen Manders, Shirley Parsens, Elizabeth Woodworth, Lorna Rae, Joan Wilson, Sara Sheinin, Anne Donahue, Yvonne Cozzuba.

All in all, the make-up committee had a good year.

The Crescent Heights High School Cadet Corps, affiliated with The King's Own Calgary Regiment, has set an outstanding example for Cadet Corps in Canada.

The King's Own Calgary Regiment offers to young men of high school age, opportunities to learn wireless, gunnery, and the operation of all types of vehicles, including tanks.

CADETS

Crescent Heights Cadet Corps No. 1622 (K.O.C.R.'s) still maintains a very enviable record in Cadet Training. Last June it was announced that they once more had won the Adams Shield for the most efficient corps in Calgary, and rated highest in the Province. This year the Corps is striving to maintain the records of the past Cadets.

In shooting, something new has been added. A new range has been built in which twelve Cadets can fire at one time. The new range was opened early in March.

The shooting records of the Corps are still something to be proud of. Many members have qualified for their Dominion marksmen pins, bronze, silver and gold. In addition the Corps has inaugarated a shooting crest of their own—95 Club and 98 Club.

The instructors are: Capt. J. J. Souter, Chief Instructor; Major A. Russell, Lt. W. H. Cooper, Lt. L. Pallesen all assistant instructors.

Cadet officers are: Cdt. Capt. C. Ringness, Cdt. Sgt.-Major J. Thibeaudeau, Cdt. Lt. D. Sawatzky, Cdt. Lt. Reinders, Cdt. Lt. G. Mc-Dougall, Cdt. Lt. G. Grant and Cdt. Lt. A. Ross.

There were fifty-six members in this year's Cadet Corps including three stenos.

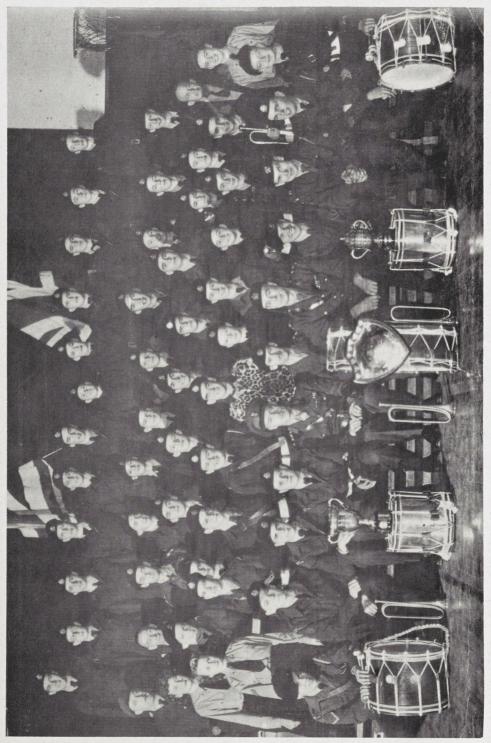

The Band is one of the outstanding Cadet Bands in the Province under the direction of Cdt. Lt. G. McDougall.

SCHOOL BAND

bandsmen rallied together to form the 1951-52 version of the Crescent Heights High School Band. Under the direction of Jim Rose some fourteen music lovers(?) united their musical talent to attempt to provide good music at school functions and raise the school spirit from the dead. To htese tune tooters their music was sheer eestacy, but to the less fortunate—well . . . The Band practised long hard hours and played at all High School rugby games and at the championship basketball games. Next is the track meet. The band was assisted by some ex-Crescent bandsmen of last year. The members all possess their own instruments except for the street drums which were borrowed from the school through the courtesy of Mr. Souter.

To this group of real School Boosters go congratulations for a job well done.

Y-TEEN CLUB

The Y-Teens experienced a very successful year under the capable leadership of Miss Farr. The executive consisted of:—

President	Marilyn Jowett
Vice-President	Ferne Wilson
Secretary	Joan McKillop
Treasurer	Mary Winkelaar
Gamma Chi Reps	Donna Rabidou
	Leith Nance

The year opened with an initiation party at which we made candy for sale next day. Proceeds from this sale went towards buying a record player for the Girls' Recreation Room.

At Christmas, the girls decorated the Riley Home and contributed gifts.

Lois Toone represented us at the B.C. Conference which was held in Vancouver.

The Alberta Y-Teen Conference was held in Calgary this year and proved very successful.

The annual March Masquerade was held on March 21. Good costumes and prizes contributed much to the fun.

The presentation of the Y-Teen Leadership award is now being made.

In the next month we are going to have elections and are promised a bang-up party to end the year.

We would like to wish the Y-Teens future success.

CHEERLEADERS

The cheerleading squad of Crescent Heights was headed by cheer captain, Gay Wood. The eight members of the squad were: Pat Gregg, Pat Simpson, Pat Peck, Peggy McGregor, Joan Milne, Verna Mae Gannon, Loyce Robinson, Doreen Martini.

The school spirit was boosted by these girls at the rallies and during the football and basketball seasons. All the tickets sold for these games were sold by the cheerleaders.

The track meet was successful due to the efforts of the cheerleaders who out did themselves in the cheering.

The hope for following years is that the cheerleaders will be as successful as they were this term.

GIRLS' TUMBLING CLUB

Each Tuesday at four, through snow and shine, an interested group of girls learned the finer art(??) of tumbling under the watchful sponsorship of Miss Hibbard.

A successful year was climaxed by a display for Crescent's Open House, when the girls presented Miss Hibbard with a corsage of six oses, thus showing their appreciation for her co-operation and interest.

Sadie Baker, Muriel Webster, Phyllis Swanson, Marlene Sears and eannine Gannon performed a tumbling and balancing act for the same occasion. This all was repeated for the Calgary Health and Recreation lisplay on April 8.

The finishing touch to a fine year was when Miss Hibbard gave a tea for the members of the club. Her mother, Mrs. Hibbard poured tea, and everyone felt the work and year had been worthwhile.

"Fools' Frolic", the annual dance of the club, was held on April 4, and proved to be original in several ways and was a great success.

A great deal of commendation goes to the cheer leaders and the Art Committee for a very fine job. The track teams received their well deserved support from the student body when everyone turned out to cheer them.

This year the Library was presented with an "Award Book", in which will be kept a record of those students who win awards during the school year. This was made possible through co-operation with the Students' Union.

To end the year, the traditional six Booster Awards, pins and guards, were presented on "Award Day", to the outstanding Boosters in the school.

BOYS' TUMBLING CLUB

The Club worked mainly on Box-horse work and advanced tumbling this year. However, we did have quite a few beginners who, before long, showed signs of very good progress. No less than six displays were put on at various times with the Spring-board and Boxhorse.

Four boys put on a show at the Variety Concert entitled "The Four Aces". They were Gavin Mann, Hughe Grasswick, Lance Alexander and Dave Gregg.

We started the year with about thirty-five boys.

PHILATELIC SOCIETY

Regular meetings were held throughout the year, conducted by President Leon Malinowski, for the second successive year. Teacher sponsor was Mr. Dann.

Talks on stamps and trading periods were held regularly. In this way the club's main purpose, that of promoting good fellowship among stamp collectors was upheld.

Although the club's membership was low, the organization had a successful and interesting season, and looks forward to fun, some new members and more stamps next Fall.

SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

Under the direction of Mr. O. Kirk, the Crescent Heights High School Orchestra was once more organized after a lapse of several years. Eight striving amateur musicians met in the first period of every school day and determined to carry on the orchestra. These members were: Piano, Marlene Kepler; Violins, Mickey Kittle, Gordon McLennan, Glenn Price; Clarinets: Brian McKibbin, Louis Faber; Tenor Sax, Bill Houther, and Drums, Jim Rose. During the course of the year the Orchestra had a few changes, these being a new pianist, Betty Farwell, a piano- accordianist, Donna Scott and the loss of Bill Heuther. On Tuesday mornings, Howard Morgeau, with his trumpet, sat in. We were also helped out by outside students. These were Leroy Wright, alto sax, an ex-Crescent student and Henry Bycio, violin.

The Orchestra made its first public appearance at the Annual Variety Concert and was well received. The climax to this year's playing was marked by the Orchestra's participation in the school Operetta as the Operetta Orchestra.

BOYS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Boys' Athletic Association has once again written into its records a very successful year's work. Mr. MacLean was our new sponsor, who with various members of our club started the ball rolling.

The annual "Kick Off" Dance which introduced the rugby season, lead our parade of activities. An exhibition basketball game between Crescent and U. of A. was sponsored by the association. This was done in order to raise funds for bills owing. This also increased basketball enthusiasm. Thanks to the cooperation of the Students' Union the Senior Boys' Basketball team received colorful jackets to signify them "champions".

The Cheerleaders will once again be presented with rings. By this means we try to show our appreciation for the support they have given us.

The Boys' Association has purchased a large amount of sports equipment this year. These include new rugby helmets, pants, boots, etc. We would like to thank "Butch" Roberts for his financial support in this line.

We would like to express our sincere thanks to all those good people who attended our functions, giving their support, in order to make this one of our finest years in all respects.

SENIOR FOOTBALL

Although led by triple threat quarterback Harvey Wylie working out of the spectacular split "T" formation, Crescent again failed to make the playoffs. However, the team still managed to show flashes of brilliance and power throughout the entire season.

Crescent started the season by blanking Western 12-0, but lost their second game 11-2 to St. Mary's. The Blue Men ran wild in their third game with a resounding 27-0 victory over Central. The following game proved to be the most thrill-packed grid encounter of the year with Crescent losing the heart breaker 13-12 to Western. Crescent finished out the season with a 27-10 beating at the hands of St. Mary's.

Highlight of Crescent's offense was Harvey Wylie's outstanding running, and brilliant passing. Time after time he rallied the team on to greater heights. The human bull-dozer Ken Girling, plus his two fleet running mates, Kerry Kerr and Wayne Benson were very effective also. Other stalwarts of the backfield were pass catching Ron Aitken, quarterback Cliff Wylie, and halves Ron Samuelson, Dennis Christie, and Gavin Mann. The line, spear-headed by centre Ken McNeil's bone crushing tackles was a tower of strength at times. Composed of Gibson

Due to their standout performances, Harvey Wylie, Ken McNeil, and Ken Girling gained berths on the high school all-star team.

The team greatly appreciated the excellent work done by the two equipment managers, Mr. Watson and Mr. Russell, to Mr. Florendine, the team manager, and Mr. Aitken the trainer who helped to keep the boys in one piece.

One of the outstanding football coaches in the city, he never fails to pass on much of his football knowledge to the boys. The players who play under him have nothing but praise for Butch on or off the field.

Don Moore—Junior Football Coach Don deserves a great deal of credit for leading the boys to such a successful season. His great love and spirit for the game in addition to his willingness to give up any amount of his time to the team made a popular coach to both players and fans alike.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

After three years of determined coaching, Don Moore at last came through this season with a winning combination. Although the championship is not officially conceded to Crescent, the Juniors were on top when the wretched snows of November buried the gridiron and forced postponment of future games.

Crescents offensive headed by fleet halfback Ross Stubbert and driving full-back Ted Elford appeared to run out of fuel when nearing the opposition's goal posts. Nevertheless it held its own against the other teams mediocre backfields. On the defensive however the team proved a tower of strength, letting only one touchdown cross their line throughout the season.

Summaries -

First Game-

With both teams playing outstanding defensive ball, Crescent eked past a battling Central squad by a 1-0 score. The only tally of the game was when George Gibney raced down on Ted Elford's booming punt to score a rouge.

SENIOR BASKETBALL

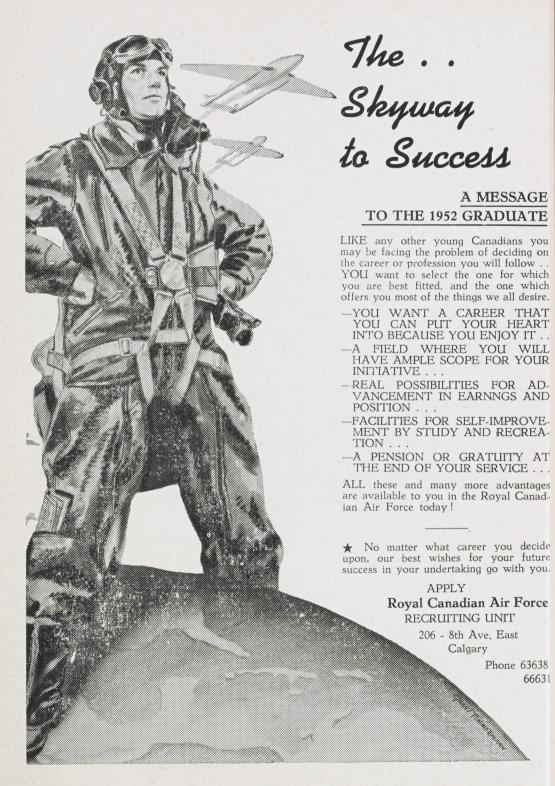

Before hundreds of jubilant Crescent rooters the Seniors were successful in their quest for the Gas Company trophy, symbolic of interscholastic senior basketball supremacy. Crescent's well-earned victory over Western had the crowd in an up-roar throughout the game. Led by starry centre Norm MacIntosh, who again won the most valuable player award and high scoring title, the team hit its stride on the final game. Western couldn't get their high flying offense untracked due to Crescent's leach-like checking. Notable during this game was Norm MacIntosh's rebounding, Keith Nevison's and Larry Larkham's shooting, Harvey Rayman's dribbling, Ken McNiel's recovery of loose balls, and Mr. Souter's refreshing shower after the game with his clothes on.

Although favored at the start of the season as the team to beat, the boys hit a crippling mid-season slump which threatened to ruin their play-off chances. But the team rallied in the clutch to tie for first slot, with Western. During the season Crescent had a record of two wins and two losses against Western while whipping Central three out of four. The team also had the distinction of never losing on its home floor.

Leading Scorers:— Norm MacIntosh (1) 113, Keith Nevison (2) 71, Harvey Rayman (4) 56.

Mr. Souter (Coach)—Perhaps thinking of last year's bitter defeat, Mr. Souter coached with a vengeance to drive the team to a successful season. Besides coaching very capably from the bench, he even went to the extent of making several personal appearances at practice in his colorful red uniform.

Norm MacIntosh (Centre)—With a near record-breaking average of 14-1 points a game, Norm was undoubtedly the outstanding player in the league. His potency anywhere in the pivot added to his smooth hook shots had the opposition completly bewildered at times. Many a game came Crescent's way due to his steady checking, consistant rebounding, and leadership in the tense moments.

Keith Nevison (Guard)—His ability to hit anywhere on the floor, his valuable rebounding and smooth style of play made Keith a unanimous choice of the High School All*Star team. He placed second in the individual scoring with a total of 71 points.

Harvey Rayman (Forward)— Although the smallest member of the team, Harvey possessed the most accurate set-shot. His adeptness in the corner also gave a spot on the All-Star team.

Larry Larkam (Forward)—Larr's third year of Senior Basketball for Crescent proved to be a successful one. His set-shot was dangerous from anywhere on the floor.

Ken McNeil (Guard)—Ken was always in there fighting, using his size to gather in defensive rebounds. His playing improved greatly as the season progressed.

Ron Aitken (Guard)—One of the larger members of the team, Ron played exceptionally well for his first year of Senior ball.

Bob Gillingham (Centre)—Also a first year man, Bob used his superior height to capture many rebounds this season.

- Frank Halverson (Forward)—Frank used his speed to advantage in this his first year of High School ball.

- Norm Sheasby (Guard)—Norm played with all he had throughout the season.
- Bryce Taylor (Centre)—One of the tallest players in the league, his rebounding highlighted his play. He should prove a great threat next year.

JUNIOR BASKETBALL

Dashing down the floor for a quick basket or checking in the back court, this year's addition of Crescent Juniors appeared to be the most powerful produced on the Hill for many seasons. Holdovers from last season plus a sprinkling of new talent combined to make the team a well-balanced quintette. The team was noted for its quick lightning-like offense. Ross Stubbert breaking in for the corner, Stretch Gordon throwing the up from the pivot, Cliff Wylie and Jack Kenyon shooting their high looping accurate set shots from the far court, made the team dangerous from anywhere on the floor. But to the dismay of the players and their rooters alike, the team lost the Championship by the virtue of one point to Central. During the season Crescent won two games from Central while losing two also. Against Western the team had a perfect record of four victories and no defeats.

The final game was without a doubt one of the most thrilling games of the season. Close all the way, Central secured a one point lead and managed to hold off the desperate Crescent players. Crescent may well be proud of this year's Crescent Juniors.

- High Scorers:—Ross Stubbert (2) 78 points, Roger Gordon (3) 75 points, Jack Kenyon (4) 70 points.

- Ross Stubbert (Forward)—His speed and his desire to win, plus deadly shooting made Ross a threat whenever he was on the floor. He was the team's high scorer with a total of 78 points.
- Jack Kenyon (Guard)—An asset to the team due to his superb rebounding and the ability to keep cool at any time. His set-shots helped give him a total of 70 points for the season.

HOUSE LEAGUE HOCKEY

For the first time in its history, the powers that be at Crescent Heights, have officially recognized the Students' Hockey Association. This recognition empowers us to open shop and do business in a legal way within the terms of the Constitution of the Students' Union. Needless to say, the hockey-minded boys appreciated this very much and we wish to extend our sincere thanks to the Union.

SENIOR HOCKEY CHAMPIONS

Early in the Fall attempts were made to revive hockey on an interscholastic basis to be carried on like Rugby and Basketball. As Crescent was the only High School to reach for this torch, the scheme fell through. The Hillmen then turned their energies to the organization of a House League, and shortly before Christmas representatives from a number of rooms gathered in Mr. Watson's room to set up such an organization. Officers were kept at a minimum, being only four:—

Sponsor	Mr. Watson
President	Cliff Wylie
Equipment	Dennis Lenihan
Schedule	Barry Cyr

The League was divided into two Sections—Senior and Junior. There were five teams in the Senior Section and four teams in the Junior Section. Approximately one hundred boys participated and each one was assessed fifty cents.

The following were the teams in the Senior Section:

Bears	. Captain—Dick McGhee
Black Hawks	Captain—John Peacock
Cubs	Captain—Bud MacDonald
Mothballs	Captain—Cliff Wylie
	Captain—Dennis Lenihan

Junior Section:

Clowns	Captain—Lorne Anderson
Hot Rods	Captain—George McKay
Indians	Captain—John Waugh
Mercuries	Captain—Barrie Cyr

In the Senior Section the Bears finished in first place one point ahead of the Mothballs. However the Mothballs had one game more to play when the ice finally gave out. This game was almost a sure win for the team captained by Cliff Wylie, which would have given them ten points and the League Championship. The Cubs finished in second place, while the Blackhawks and Slowpokes, with one victory apiece, shared the cellar position between them.

The Individual Award Winners were as follows:

Top Scorer of the League — Cliff Wylie with 23 points.

Best Goal Keeper — Gail Watson with 2.3 goals per game.

Best Playmaker — Fred Johnston with 12 assists.

Most Valuable Player — Lorne Pamplin by popular vote.

The Individual Award Winners in the Junior Section: Top Scorer of the League — Barrie Cyr with 13 points. Best Goal Keeper — Bill Gillett. Best Playmaker - Ron Mikkelsen with 5 assists.

In the Junior Section the Mercuries finished in undisputed possession of first place. The Indians were second, while the Hot Rods and Clowns were third and fourth respectively.

The Hockey Association wishes to thank the Boys' Association for their grant of $15. Without this donation our lot would have been much more difficult indeed.

GIRLS' SPORTS

GIRLS' INTERSCHOOL BASKETBALL

Seniors:

Led by Ron Christie the girls got off to a fine start but it was not long before Ron quit school. It was then that Miss Smith and the Senior Girls turned to able-bodied Norm MacIntosh to replace Ron. Norm's coaching proved very valuable to the girls who began to win more games. Although they were unable to head the limelight in the interscholastic competition, they had immense fun and much valuable experience. The players on the Senior team were:— Enid Forester (captain), Noreen Sellers, Mavis Murray, Mona McKibbin, Marie Clark, Lil Welychka, Louise Spankie, Pat Huntington, Verna Mae Gannon, Lorraine Stokes.

Intermediate:

The Intermediates of this year were the undefeated Junior champions of last year. Led by Keith Nevison they had a very good year. Let's keep up the good work, girls! Remember kids, they are Seniors next year. They have had two Championships in a row. What about a third? The members of the Intermediate team were: Mona McLaughlin (captain), Doreen Martini, Joan Jorgenson, Jenny Chow, Pat Wood, Joyce Darcy, Sheila Sparks, Shirley Martinson, Marge Grondahl.

Juniors:

Byron Holmes is the proud coach of the Juniors who won the Junior Interscholastic Championship. Team cooperation is one of the most remarkable assets of this team. No one player could be singled out as a star, yet the team works beautifully and with its careful passing and fast action has mastered some effective plays. The captain was Olive Briggs and the players who worked so hard were: Norah Campbell, Pat Carvell, Phyllis Fraser, Margaret Powell, Shirley Dipple, Lillarose George, Barbara Hooks, Babe Woodward, Isabel Cotteroe.

A WORD OF THANKS

The makeup of this yearbook involved the time and services of many people, and without their hard work and co-operation this publication would have been impossible.

It was an ever increasing pleasure to work with Mr. Florendine, our sponsor, whose guidance, co-operation and keen sense of humor kept us all on an even keel.

Miss Wright gave unstintingly of her time in the editing field and the staff felt that they could depend on her at all times.

I would also like to thank Miss Martin of the Arts Department and Mr. White of the Arts and Crafts department for their excellent contributions to our book. Our smart cover this year was designed by Bruce Dancey.

The co-operation and assistance of Mr. Cartwright and his office staff helped immensely in the organization of this work.

It would be impossible to mention all the people who helped with this publication but I would like to take this opportunity of thanking the Co-Editor, Lois Manning. She was always very dependable and it was a pleasure to work with her.

There was very excellent work done in the department of editors, which I appreciated very much. Frank Patton, Business Manager, was very fortunate to have Eileen Flemish on his committee, as her effort in obtaining advertising contracts was outstanding.

Thanks everyone for a job well done.

November brought the dance sponsored annually by the Girls' Assoc. This year it was "The Plaid Parade". Most people were true to the event and turned up in something plaid from a complete suit to a small hair ribbon.

The snowy sparkling month of December brought "Candy Cane Capers," sponsored by the Bugle Staff. The setting consisted of two large red and white candy canes and two tiny decorated Christmas trees. Real peppermint canes were given to the lucky couples who won the different events.

After a wonderful holiday—Family Night was the first social evening of the New Year. This was not too well attended, but those who were absent missed a very enjoyable night. Slides were shown by Miss Marion Fawdry, and other novelties such as two movies of Abbott and Costello, a piano solo, and the deep rich voice of Mr. Gordon Blyth completed the evening.

In the cool, cool of the evening of February 8, the Boys' Hi-Y Association presented "Hi-Y Hi-Lites", featuring Bruce Bristowe and his band. The stage setting was striking, being the boys' Hi-Y crest on a dark background. Murray Faulkner, from the Y.M.C.A. was master of ceremonies.

March came in with the usual amount of blustery weather and brought with it a rather busy social whirl. March 2 was "Open House" where everyone could see the whole school. Most people were interested in the new west wing where the Art classes and the Technical shops are.

Then on March 13 and 14, the Operetta "The Golden Trail," was presented. Right here we would like to stop and thank very specially Mr. Pickard, Mr. Kirk, and all who helped make it such a terrific hit.

March 28 brought everyone out masquerading as all sorts of - of -????—things!! Yes, "March Masquerade" went over as a huge success as it has every year. All sorts of costumes were dreamed up by the kids who enjoyed a crazy but wonderful evening.

April 4, first Friday in the Foolish month of April, "Fools Frolic" was held, sponsored by the Booster Club. Pat Simpson was mistress of ceremonies. The rather small crowd made up for its lack in numbers by the expressed appreciation.

Highlights Yet to Come:-

April 25—"April Showers" — Red Cross.

May 9—"May Queen Dance" — Boys' Association.

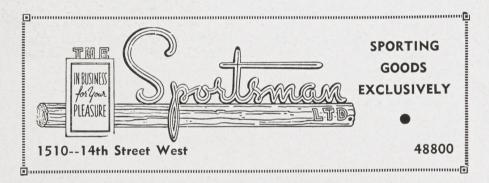

June 6—"June Prom" — Students' Union.

ADDITIONS TO THE SCHOOL

As almost everyone here knows, last year at this time Crescent was undergoing a major operation. The result—two beautiful new sections—the north wing and the west wing.

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT

The north wing is the Commercial section. Here, students taking secretarial work may obtain the subjects which will help them acquire the positions they would like.

There are three subjects offered in this section—shorthand, typing and bookkeeping. Three typing rooms are available with forty-two typewriters in each. They are very beautiful rooms with all the modern fixtures a class room could have.

The shorthand rooms are much like the typing rooms except in place of tables and typewriters there are new blond wood desks.

A special bookkeeping room is equipped with everything you could desire to help you learn the subject. From illustrations to special blackboards—they are all there.

At the far end of this bright sunny hallway, we find the room for our very own Bugle staff. All the material that is accumulated during the process of getting the Bugle together is kept here.

On the bottom floor of this wing, there are four lovely new roomstwo for cooking classes and two for sewing classes. At the end of this hall we find a spacious new music room—a very well-lighted room in a crescent shape which adds to the sound of the singing classes.

The sewing rooms are provided with new sewing machines, ironing boards, work tables and everything else that is necessary to train a good seamstress.

In the kitchens we find plenty of room for all the cooks to prepare their variety of tasty dishes. These rooms are the pride of Crescent, as we believe they excel cooking rooms anywhere.

TECHNICAL DEPARTMENT

This section comprises the west wing. Subjects offered in here are mostly automotives, mechanics and metalwork, but there are two rooms, one for Art and one for Arts and Crafts. There is also an English room and a Biology Lab. equipped, of course, with all things a teacher or student could want.

The art room, under the direction of Miss Martin, is a beautiful room designed specially for art. The west wall overlooking the park and on out to the mountains is one big window.

In Arts and Crafts, everything from modern art to leathercraft is taught. The handiwork of the students is something no one should miss seeing as it really is outstanding. Some of the articles turned out are purses, belts, clay figurines, water colour pictures, and painted abstract designs.

On to the shops. One of the favourite subjects the boys take is automotives. Cars are actually used for the boys to practice on and learn about. Concrete floors and driveways make everything much easier.

Next in line we find ourselves in the metalwork department. Machines and materials for this are the very latest, and best to help the students.

The woodworking room is almost the same as the shops the boys attended in Jr. High, only this is a new and more complete shop. All modern tools are available from an ordinary hand saw to the latest electric saws.

Last, but far from least on the parade of shops is the printing shop. A very handy unit as it does much of the school printing. This is a subject for both boys and girls and both seem to enjoy it immensely. No printing store has better machinery in it than has this room. There is a spare room just off the main printing room where all stock and supplies are kept.

At the far end of this section is a lecture room. Here the classes from the three shops have their theory.

RECREATION ROOMS

The Girls' "Rec. Room" is situated in the technical section of the school. It is a large sunny room with a piano in one corner and a record player in the other. Chairs, tables and magazines are all in here for the entertainment of the girls. If you have the courage to walk in here, you will probably find a record player going or someone playing the piano and all the rest of the kids dancing. Some noons, movies are shown. If this is the case, both boys and girls gather in here.

The Boys' "Rec Room" is much like the girls' except it is situated down in the basement of the technical wing. It isn't the same shape as the girls' room either. It is long and narrow. The floors are tile and the walls are painted. Ping-pong tables, magazines, and a radio constitute most of the entertainment in here. The boys can enjoy themselves listening to the news or some music while reading the magazines which are usually sports or mechanical magazines.

At the end of our travels through Crescent we come upon the new and very much appreciated Cafeteria. It is a huge room equipped with tables and chairs which fit in with the modern touch throughout the new wing. The kitchen is not quite finished, but it is hoped that by next year, warm meals will be waiting for the students at noon. Firestone Tires, Auto Accessories, Sporting Goods Home Appliances

UNITED KINGDOM EXCHANGE VISIT 1951

Have you ever thought what it would be like to have the dream of a life-time come true? Suppose you found yourself in Britain with a group of boys from each part of Canada, and with these boys you were taken on a conducted tour of England, Scotland, and Wales. Your hosts, who arranged your tour, were officers of the Royal Air Force and the Air Training Corps.

A bus drove you to Odiham, headquarters of the 421 (Red Indian) Squadron, R.C.A.F., where, to your utter amazement, you were harnessed to a parachute and taken up for a 15 minute flight in a real jet, a Gloster Meteor VII. This ride would probably be the ultimate of your ambitions.

By bus you were driven to Oxford, where you visited historic colleges of that famous university. At Stratford-on-Avon, birthplace of William Shakespeare, you saw "King Henry V" in the Shakespeare Memorial Theatre. You were taken to Shrewsbury, Rhyl, Caernarvon and Hawarden, touring castles, aircraft factories and many other places of interest. An Air Force plane flew you to a large A.T.C. summer camp at White Waltham. Cadets from Great Britain, United States, Canada, Australia, India and Pakistan were gathered here to take part in a mass demonstration before the Air Council.

You visited Windsor and London, touring the Houses of Parliament, Westminster Abbey, the South Bank Exhibition, the Festival Gardens, St. Paul's Cathedral, Madam Tussaud's Wax Museum and the Tower of London. In the evenings you were entertained by famous musicals such as "Carousel" and "Kiss Me Kate".

In Scotland you visited Glasgow, seeing an Exhibition of Industrial Power and a soccer game (Rangers vs Aberdeen), and then going for a steamer trip down the scenic Clyde. By bus you drove to Edinburgh where you saw the Gathering of the Clans, the March of a Thousand Pipers, and the Military Tattoo.

A train took you to Aberdeen where you reached the climax of the whole tour. On Sunday you attended divine services at Grathie with the Royal Family. After the service you spent an hour at Balmoral Castle where you had the opportunity of speaking to the late King George VI and the Queen Mother, Elizabeth. Then you had a group picture taken with the late King, the Queen Mother, Queen Elizabeth, Philip, Duke of Edinburgh, and Princess Margaret.

After this wonderful experience you were flown to York, to visit historical sights such as the York Minster and the Castle Museum. To round off a full three weeks, you spent two days, shopping in London, before boarding an R.C.A.F. North Star bound for home.

Yes, this would be a wonderful trip. I know because I was lucky enough to be chosen to take part in the 1951 United Kingdom Exchange Visit with the Royal Canadian Air Cadets. It is an experience that I will never forget, and I hope that you too, some day will have the dream of your life-time come true.

"JE ME SOUVIENS"

by Leslie Keylock

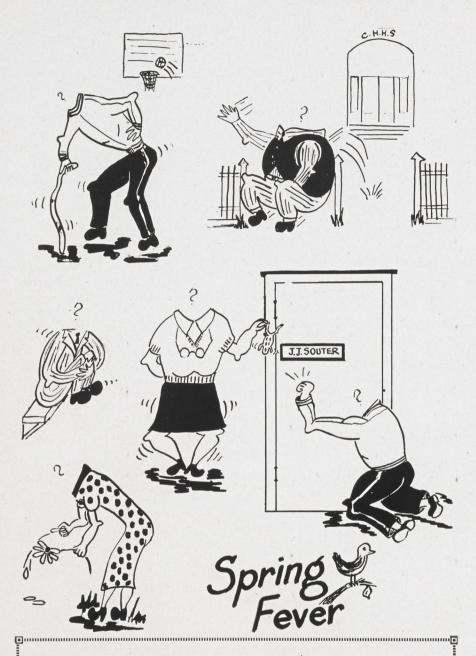

This is the motto of the province of Quebec, and I don't think that after the wonderful trip I had to that province I would be plagiarizing if I took as my motto—"I remember".

I was sent to Quebec by the Cercle Francais of Calgary on a scholarship for further tuition in advanced French (though I have forgotter most of it now, I think). After leaving Clagary last June 27, I travelled approximately two thousand miles by train to Quebec city, and the next morning I was ready for school again. The summer course of Laval University took five weeks of my time in earnest study. My stay in Quebec included an excursion to Montmorency Falls, just outside Quebec, and one hundred feet higher than Niagara Falls; and to the Cathedral of St. Anne de Beaupre, the largest and most famous of all Roman Catholic shrines in Canada; a moonlight cruise on the St Lawrence (in French, le St. Laurent) River; and a sight-seeing bus trip through l'Ile d'Orleans, the island off the shores of Quebec which is still living the old-fashioned life of France three hundred years ago. On the island, strip-farming of the type used on the feudal manors of France in the Middle Ages can still be seen.

I just wish that words could portray graphically enough, the archaic beauty of an old-world city and its surroundings, to a Westerner who has travelled but little.

Well, the stay at Quebec City had to end sometime, and through a Calgary French teacher, who was interested in hostelling, I proceeded on a bicycle trip after taking the train to Trois Riveres, Quebec. This would later prove to be the beginning of a six hundred mile trip on bicycle, although if you had told me that after my first day of riding you would have received in reply only one big groan.

After going through Drummondville I came to a pulp and paper mill complete in every detail, even to the men who stand on the logs in the river in order to prevent the logs from jamming. This is done by means of a long pointed steel pole. Passing through Sherbrooke I arrived at the American border. After cycling through the "green rolling hills of Vermont", I know now, better than most people what they are. I received a very different impression than I had pictured. from this, my first visit to the United States of America. The cows grazed contentedly in the fields, and no noise disturbed the peace, even in the city. Back in Canada the most unusual part of my trip occurred when I reached the hostel at Shefford Mountain. Just after I arrived there, it began to thunder and to rain in torrents. I was stuck in a little cabin "a mi-chemin" (half-way) up the mountain, half a mile from the nearest civilization, and eight miles from a grocery store. To surmount this, I had arrived without provisions, expecting to leave early the next morning for the next stop on my journey. However, it rained all day except for very short periods, during which I went out and gathered loganberries. What a day—three meals of loganberries, and porridge! Leaving Shefford mountain far behind, I made my longest laily trip—88.9 miles—almost a record for a tyro who had taken no cycling trips before. Just beyond Montreal I caught the train once again, and visited some of my relatives in Ontario. One of them took me to the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto where I saw waterskiing, motor-boat racing, (in which one man was killed as I looked on) and I also saw Jimmy Durante for the first time (you will notice that I put Jimmy at the end of the list of attractions!) I also visited Kingston, crossed the Niagara fruit belt, to Niagara Falls, and entered the United States for the second time during my trip. I then returned nome—the end of a five-thousand-mile trip. It was definitely quite a summer for a person who had done as little travelling as I had.

FRATERNITIES AND SORORITIES

In this field of discussion, there are many topics upon which one could meditate. I think the most important is the topic of the association and relationship of these organizations with the school.

In school, there is a strong objection to the recognition of frats and sororities. Many people say this may be a cause of the students forming cliques of their particular group and excluding others. This is a certain way of losing many friends and the priviledge of obtaining new friendships is not used.

The second objection to frats and sororities is that it takes up valuable homework time. This is also true. However, today the situation of juvenile delinquency arises and frat and sorority meetings and parties may be important entertainment.

These are only the disadvantages to which people object. There are many other advantages of these organizations.

These groups show teen-agers the merit in team-work and co-operation and in this way experience may be gained through these clubs. The formation of these groups shows enthusiasm on the student's part. New interest is aroused and new challenges made to those who join the clubs.

In general, frats and sororities are approved of. Complete attention should not be given to such a group. This may prove an undesirable quality for them. Bright colors of frat jcakets and sorority sweaters add much to the school and initiations, and are a part of every rugby game.

I think frats and sororities should remain in close relation with the school and be a part of it.

Ferne Wilson.
